

Step-by-Step Track for Athletic Injury Expenses

If at any point in the claim process additional information is needed, the insurance company will send a letter to the patient requesting the needed documentation. It is very important to respond to these letters. Claims will be denied without proper documentation.

